Ages 9-12

Sept. 12- Oct. 26 “Some Words With A Mummy” A young group of scientists are invited by their Professor, to a late night unveiling of the contents of an ancient sarcophagus. Things take an unexpected twist when they jolt the mummy back to life and are left to teach him about all things modern. Based on a story by Edgar Allen Poe. (No class 10/10)

Oct. 31-Dec. 21 “Stirring Up Trouble” The storyline of Shakespeare’s “Much Ado About Nothing” gets a new life in this modern retelling. Students at Messina High spend most of their days in cliques; the popular kids, the smart kids and the trouble makers. When rumors start flying about the new girl in school, no ones reputation is safe. (No class 12/5)

Jan. 3- Feb 15 “Way, Way Off Broadway” Challenging your acting skills by entering the world of classic melodrama. This rags to riches tale of a beautiful young country girl, brought to the big city to become a star has it all. Heroes, Villians, Damsels in Distress,, the rich, the poor and even a nail biting moment with someone tied to the train tracks. (No class on 1/2 , 1/16)

Feb. 27-Apr 11 “The King’s Creampuffs” When a witch is given a far too severe, punishment after stepping on the King’s toe and refusing to apologize, she decides to turn the tables and punish him instead. The Queen, Jester, Page and slew of other Royal figures can’t believe how it gets out of hand.

Apr 23- June 13 “The Reluctant Columbus” This is not how the history books would say the weeks before Columbus’ trip to the new world went down, but it sure would have made it a lot more fun. Here’s a modern version of the story of a guy who loved maps, a psychiatrist, some stuck up aristocrats and a guy who didn’t want to be a prince teamed up and set out on the trip they hoped would change their lives forever. (No class on 5/28)
